

CLEARPOINT PROGRAMME OF INQUIRY 2023-2024

	WHO WE ARE	WHERE WE ARE IN PLACE & TIME	HOW WE EXPRESS OURSELVES	HOW THE WORLD WORKS	HOW WE ORGANIZE OURSELVES	SHARING THE PLANET
6	Understanding one's own beliefs and the beliefs of others can provide insight into the international-mindedness	Indigenous people share their culture in different ways.	Ideas can be expressed and understood through the combination of print and visual images.	Machines help us complete tasks that impact our daily life	Globally, societies govern in many ways to make a decision-making structure.	La consommation d'énergie a des conséquences multiples sur notre environnement.
5	People have rights and responsibilities as citizens of the world.	Historical structures can chronicle the life of a community.	Art is the expression and application of creativity and imagination	Forces of nature can have an impact on all things.	Locally, society uses different ways of governing which allow us to put in place decision-making structures.	Biodiversity supports nature's health and balance.
Cycle II Year A (Grade 3 & 4)	Healthy choices build our bodies and minds.	Exploration has influenced the migration of people and the development of societies.	Advertising uses a variety of techniques to inform, persuade and/ or entertain.	The universe is governed by laws which maintain order.	Advances in communications change how we express ourselves and connect to one another.	Human activity produces waste, which needs to be managed to protect the environment.
Cycle 1 Year B (Grade 1 & 2)	Our communities have an impact on our lives.	Geographic tools help people know where they are in the world.	People can express their feelings through different forms of art.	The changing properties of water affect our daily lives.	Transportation systems are created to meet the needs of the people.	Every living thing has a life cycle
K5	Our role in school in relationship to others and our environment		People express themselves through celebrations.	Changing seasons affect life on earth.	The construction of homes are influenced by many factors.
K4	Our similarities and differences shape who we are		Imagination is a powerful tool that expands our ability to think, create and express ourselves.		There are many resources and strategies to help keep us safe.	Throughout the world, people cultivate fruits and vegetables for themselves and others.

 Please note that there may be some discrepancies on the unit letters posted above, particularly with the dates. Homeroom teachers will always have the most up-to-date unit letters and information to share, so please reach out if you have any questions. *****